COOLIDGE AND SENATE IN MORE DIFFERENCES

ISSUE IS RIGHT OF INVESTIGATION INTO DEPARTMENTS

SENATOR REED SEEKS TO EX- PUNGE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE FROM RECORDS

YALE TAX EXPERT SENDS IN HIS RESIGNATION, STATING REASONS

(By United Press)
Washington, April 14.—Renewal of the bitter conflict between President Coolidge and the senate over the right of investigation by senatorial committees into the doings of government departments was promised today with both sides to the argument as determined as ever to enforce their views.

Senator Reed's resolution to expunge from the records the message of President Coolidge to the senate assailing the Couzens resolution of the investigation of the internal revenue bureau as outside the bounds of legal inquiry, still is pending before the senate and debate on it can be started at any time. Reed said he would demand action on the measure today.

Administration leaders who improved the week end by getting in touch with the president, found him unsympathetic to their appeals for help, it was understood. The president is unlikely to vary his position, was the word senators brought back today to arrange a discussion with democrats to prevent another day of such bitter partisan discussion as occurred Saturday. They fear that the senate will get into such a mean temper over this question, it allowed to go on debating it, that if the legislation will be passed before the time for the political conventions in June.

Democrats said they intended to have a showdown. They regarded the president's letter as a point which must be settled.

They intended, democrats said, to insist on a report this week from the expense committee on the Jones resolution, empowering the Couzens committee to investigate the internal revenue bureau and to hire Francis J. Heney with government money instead of privately out of the purse of Senator Couzens, as at first arranged.

While the senate was preparing for resumption of hostilities, Professor Thomas Adams, Yale tax expert engaged by the Couzens committee before Heney was hired, sent in his resignation on the ground that he feared the committee was about to begin "memorializing child's play."

SENATE REPUBLICANS RALLY TO AID COOLIDGE

Washington, April 14.—Senate republicans today rallied to the support of President Coolidge, in his stand against alleged illegal investigation methods in the senate.

A new attack on the democratic position was opened by Senator Edge, New Jersey, who defended the president's message and denounced the democratic "mania" for investigations as an "indefensible" effort to break down the morale of government departments.

WHEELER SPEAKS OF INDICTMENT

Washington, April 14.—Information reaching Senator Wheeler today from Montana convinced him that former Attorney General Daugherty played a part in securing an indictment at Great Falls, Montana, against him.

A confidential report to Wheeler stated that John S. Pratt, a special assistant attorney general, appeared before the grand jury at Great Falls and urged Wheeler's indictment after the first ballot failed to result in an indictment.

Several ballots were required to secure the 12 votes necessary to indict, according to the report.

Wheeler is understood to have verified the report that Pratt was recently in Montana. He indicated that he would ask Chairman Borah of the committee investigating his indictment to call Pratt as a witness to

Legislative Mass Enveloping the Upper House

$600,000 SHORTAGE IN THE AFFAIRS OF KANSAS CITY BANK

(By United Press)
Kansas City, Mo., April 14.—A shortage of $600,000 in accounts of the Fidelity National Bank and Trust company was discovered on March 31st by examiners for the federal reserve bank, officials announced today.

Since that date accountants have been trying to trace the shortage, in an effort to determine what disposition was made of the money. The result of their inquiry of the books was presented to a directors' meeting this morning.

The accountants' report was not revealed and two hours after the directors meeting started, they were still in session. Large amounts of money were transferred to the bank today.

Only a few anxious depositors gathered in the lobby, however, and no further difficulty was anticipated. The bank has deposits of $23,000,000.

GOV. PINCHOT JOINS REGULARS

MAKES HIS PLEA WITH ROCK- RIBBED REPUBLICANS OF STATE

(By United Press)
Harrisburg, Pa., April 14.—Governor Gifford Pinchot, leading exponent of prohibition enforcement and long considered an insurgent in the ranks of "rock-ribbed republicanism" in Pennsylvania, has made his peace with the organization.

By conceding the republican nomination of President Calvin Coolidge and relinquishing whatever thoughts of it he may have had for himself, Governor Pinchot has served to solidify the republican party on dry enforcement.

Recognition that Mr. Coolidge would be the republican choice at Cleveland in June came in an adroitly worded paragraph in a statement by the governor last night, in which he acknowledged he was at the bottom of Francis J. Heney's rejection by Senator Couzens as counsel to lead the senate committee to enforce prohibition enforcement.

U. S. ARMY ROUND WORLD FLIERS WILL LEAVE SEWARD SOON

(By United Press)
Seward, Alaska, April 14.—The United States army's round the world fliers were here today ready to take off on the next leg of their ambitious effort to be the first to circle the globe in the air.

The weather was cool and frosty.

ascertain on whose orders he was sent there.

ROW IN LAND FRAUDS HEARING

Washington, April 14.—Another row in the senate land frauds investigation today threatened to end the session of the committee.

The storm broke when James R. Page, Kansas City attorney, acting as committee prosecutor, read a letter from John J. Morton, publisher of Atlix, Texas, making grave charges against land companies in the lower Rio Grande valley.

George Hill, Jr., of Houston, attorney for R. B. Craeger, republican national committeeman for Texas and head of one of the land companies under investigation, leaped to his feet and demanded that the letter be stricken from the record.

PRATT ARGUED CASE BEFORE GRAND JURY

Great Falls, Montana, April 14.—John S. Pratt, special assistant attorney general, argued the case of B. K. Wheeler before the federal grand jury which indicted Wheeler, according to members of the grand jury.

TWO MOTHERS FIGHT FOR THEIR BOYS

MOTHER LOVE SHINES AGAINST SORDID BACKGROUND OF THAW CASE

COURT FIGHT STARTED TO FREE HARRY K. THAW FROM ASYLUM

(By United Press)
Philadelphia, April 14.—Against the sordid background of the Thaw case begins today a battle of that most potential of human emotion—mother love. Two mothers are fighting for their boys.

The one, Mrs. Mary Thaw, gray and bowed with her 83 years, seeks release of her son, Harry K. Thaw, from the Kirkbride asylum where he has been incarcerated for seven years.

The other, Evelyn Nesbit, opposes freedom of the man who was once her husband on the grounds that his release will imperil the rightful heritage of her son, Russell William Thaw, now a fifteen year old student at Friend's school in Atlantic City.

A court fight to free Harry Thaw and declare him sane was started before Justice Monahan today. Thaw's attorneys and those of his aged mother who wants the boy that has brought her so much sorrow back with her for her few remaining years, are basing their action on a claim that the treatment the millionaire has received at the Pennsylvania hospital has cured him of the mental affliction which led to his attack on Frederick Gump, Jr., of Kansas City on Christmas day, 1916.

It was following his attempted suicide after this affair that Thaw was adjudged insane.

Evelyn Nesbit Scored First

Philadelphia, April 14.—Evelyn Nesbit scored first today in the legal fight to free her former husband, Harry K. Thaw, from an insane asylum.

The petition presented by Miss Nesbit to intervene in the case and oppose Thaw's release on behalf of her son, Russell, was granted when the trial opened before Justice Monahan in the court of common pleas.

Thus is added to the forces opposing the freedom of the slayer of Stanford White, the woman who claims for her 15 year old son the heritage of the Thaw millions.

Counsel for Thaw opposed Evelyn's petition, but their motion was denied. The selection of a jury began this morning.

OVERCOME BY COAL GAS, 2 DEAD IN BED

(By United Press)
Minneapolis, April 14.—Overcome by coal gas, the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bardin, both 70, were found in bed at their home early today.

A milk wagon driver found the Sunday milk still on the porch and called police to investigate. The coroner said both had been dead for a day.

MAGNUS JOHNSON FILES FOR SENATE

(By United Press)
St. Paul, April 14.—Magnus Johnson, junior United States senator from Minnesota, today filed as a candidate for re-election on the Farmer-Labor ticket.

The filing was received by letter from Washington.

JAPAN DOES NOT LIKE JAPANESE EXCLUSION LAW

(By United Press)
Tokio, April 14.—Japan views the action of the American house of representatives in passing the immigration bill excluding Japanese immigrants as involving to Japan "a matter of honor and international prestige." Baron Saka Tan, former finance minister and leader of public opinion, told the United Press today in an exclusive interview.

Viscount Shiba Sawa, an equally prominent leader, added that "Japan still trusts that the fairness of American public opinion will solve the problem."

Both expressed "deep regret" at the passage of the bill.

CHAIRMAN JOHNSON SPEAKS ON QUESTION

Washington, April 15.—By enacting total exclusion of Japanese from this country and its territories, the United States would strike at Japan's ambition to possess the Hawaiian islands, Chairman Johnson of the house immigration committee declared in a statement here today.

Johnson said that the "gentleman's agreement" with Japan humiliates this nation.

IMMIGRATION, BONUS, TAXES CHIEF MEASURES

SENATE REPUBLICANS CALLED A CONFERENCE TODAY

FINANCE COMMITTEE TO DECIDE IF BONUS PRECEDES TAXES

(By United Press)
Washington, April 14.—A conference of senate republicans was called today in an effort to find a way out of the legislative mass enveloping the upper house of congress.

Immigration, bonus and taxes are the chief measures under consideration and the republican leaders want to decide:

1. Whether they should attempt to adopt the Japanese exclusion amendment in the pending immigration bill in open defiance of the suggestions of the state department.

2. Whether the bonus bill should be given the right of way over taxes in defiance of the suggestion of President Coolidge.

3. Whether compromise should be sought of the tax bill in defiance of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon's championing of the Mellon plan.

The finance committee also needs to decide whether to call up bonus or taxes first.

This is the first caucus of republicans called since opening of this session of congress.

There is a strong sentiment in the ranks for adoption of the Japanese exclusion amendment as an answer to what some senators believe was the "unprecedented" note of the Japanese government in opposing the pending immigration legislation.

Bonus adherents are confident their bill will be given the right of way over the taxes and claimed sufficient votes in the caucus to swing their program.

CONFERENCE JUST PASSES THE BUCK

Washington, April 14.—The republican majority conference called today to plan the legislative program regarding immigration, taxes and bonuses, dodged every one of the major questions and "passed the buck" to the senate and the finance committee.

When the conference failed to express any preference as to whether bonus or taxes should come first before the senate, Chairman Smoot called a meeting of the finance committee to decide later in the day which bill is to be given the right of way.

The conference also failed to take any action regarding the proposal for a Japanese exclusion provision in the immigration bill—the third vital question which was to have been acted upon. This puts the question up to senators individually and does not pledge the party as a party to any course.

The majority of the conference voted in favor of a one per cent of the 1910 census quota for the new immigration law. This would cut the quota limitations of the Reed bill in half and completely alter the house bill which provided for a two per cent of the 1890 census.

TRY TO PUSH BONUS BILL AHEAD

Washington, April 14.—Shouldering full responsibility, republican members of the senate finance committee today decided to get the bonus bill the right of way over the tax bill in the senate.

Chairman Smoot announced the bonus would be taken up Wednesday or Thursday and the tax bill would not be considered until the bonus bill had been disposed of.

This would delay consideration of the tax bill for at least ten days.

In order to get action on the bonus bill, republican members of the committee were forced to take all respon-

RIGOROUS EFFORTS TO GUARD NEW GREEK REPUBLIC

(By United Press)
Athens, April 14.—Rigorous measures were instituted today to guard the new Greek republic.

The republic was confirmed by an overwhelming majority in Sunday's popular plebiscite.

The government announced that formal discussion regarding the change in regime is forbidden for a period of five years and that activities against republican rule will be put down without mercy.

It is forecast that the first Greek president will be elected in June although a date has not yet been determined definitely. Following the departure of former Premier Venizelos, ex-minister Zamilis is mentioned as a leading possibility for the post of chief executive. In some quarters, however, it is believed Venizelos may return and become a candidate.

TRIAL OF LANGLEY SET FOR APRIL 28

CONGRESSMAN CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY TO VIOLATE PROHIBITION LAWS

(By United Press)
Washington, April 14.—Trial of Representative Langley of Kentucky, republican, indicted for conspiracy to violate the prohibition laws today was set for April 28th.

Early hearings of the Langley case was granted by the court on the plea of the congressman's attorney that his "political future, honor and liberty are at stake."

Langley will appear at Covington, Kentucky, tomorrow to answer an indictment brought against him there.

DAILY STAR ON SALE, BUT NOBODY BIDDING; PUZZLE FOR JUDGE

Minneapolis, April 14.—Stockholders of the Minnesota Daily Star, Minneapolis, Farmer-Labor daily, are not only holding the bag, but can't drop it, according to developments Saturday.

At 10 a. m. according to a recent district court order, sealed bids were to be opened for sale of the paper. Not one bid was offered.

Then George R. Smith, attorney for John Thompson, business manager of the paper; Thomas Van Lear, its president, and A. B. Frizzell offered on behalf of these three to pay $100,000 to keep the paper going and "pay off creditors as money was earned," or to pay $25,000 cash outright for all assets.

George B. Leonard, attorney for the receiver, declared such bids could not be considered, and court adjourned without action.

Berlin, April 14.—The German government this afternoon formally accepted in part the report of the experts' commission on reparations as forecast by the United Press.

Announcement came after a meeting of the state premiers and the cabinet.

sibility upon their own shoulders. The republican caucus failed to decide the question earlier in the day and most of the democratic members of the committee refused to vote.

FOUR MEN HELD BELIEVED TO BE A BANDIT GANG

ST. PAUL POLICE QUESTION THEM REGARDING MISCHUK MURDER

LATTER WAS SHOT DOWN TWO MONTHS AGO IN TERRIFIC FIGHT

(By United Press)
St. Paul, April 14.—Four men were held by police today out of a gang of a dozen questioned in connection with the murder of Michael Mischuk two months ago.

Police said they were members of a "bandit gang" lead by Christ Vaaca.

Mischuk was shot down by two bandits when they attempted to rob him of $1,400. The man put up a terrific fight and the bandits fled.

He is the proprietor of a rooming house. He was in the habit of cashing the boarders' checks and had just withdrawn the money from his bank when attacked.

Although he lived for a day, Mischuk refused to tell police who his murderers were, declaring he would "get them" when he got well. He died and police have been searching for two months for the men.

Vaaca, leader of the bandit gang, was killed more than a month ago when patrolmen surprised him and two companions entering a Minneapolis drug store. The two companions of Vaaca were caught later. One of them is said to have now confessed.

CLEAR UP HIDDEN IDENTITY OF 50 YEARS

(By United Press)
Minneapolis, April 14.—An identity that has been hidden for 50 years appeared to be solved today.

"Robert T. Clark" of Philadelphia is convinced he is none other than the Frederick Lieb who at a tender age was kidnapped from his parents at Quincy, Illinois, June 3, 1871.

When Prof. W. H. Lieb died at Quincy a few months ago, the death account published a story of the kidnapping and there was a picture of "Freddie Lieb" as he appeared before he was kidnapped. Seeing the account in the newspaper, Clark recalled a copy of the picture in the home of his foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Winter at Norristown, Pa.

He compared the two and found them identical. Then he went to Quincy and followed up the investigation. From there he came to Minneapolis and convinced himself that Charles H. Lieb, living there, is his brother. Today he went to Hastings, Minnesota, to meet Mrs. Bessie Sutherland whom he is certain is his sister. The father, Professor Lieb, formerly lived in the Twin Cities.

KNUTSON FILES FOR RE-ELECTION

(By United Press)
St. Paul, April 14.—Representative Harold Knutson, St. Cloud, now under bond pending action of a Maryland grand jury on a serious moral charge, today filed as a candidate for re-election.

Representative Knutson filed on the republican ticket. He represents the sixth district of Minnesota.

SEASON FOR TROUT OPENS TOMORROW

(By United Press)
St. Paul, April 14.—The fishing season opens tomorrow—but for only one kind of fish.

That kind is trout—all varieties except lake trout. The open season on pike, pickerel, crappies, lake trout and other kinds except bass will begin the 15th of May. The bass season does not open until June 15th.

IMMIGRATION,
BONUS, TAXES
CHIEF MEASURESSENATE REPUBLICANS CALLED A CONFERENCE
TODAYFINANCE COMMITTEE TO DECIDE
IF BONUS PRECEDES
TAXES

(By United Press)
Washington, April 14.—A conference of senate republicans was called today in an effort to find a way out of the legislative mass enveloping the upper house of congress.

Immigration, bonus and taxes are the chief measures under consideration and the republican leaders want to decide:

1. Whether they should attempt to adopt the Japanese exclusion amendment in the pending immigration bill in open defiance of the suggestions of the state department.

2. Whether the bonus bill should be given the right of way over taxes in defiance of the suggestion of President Coolidge.

3. Whether compromise should be sought of the tax bill in defiance of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon's championing of the Mellon plan.

The finance committee also needs to decide whether to call up bonus or taxes first.

This is the first caucus of republicans called since opening of this session of congress.

There is a strong sentiment in the ranks for adoption of the Japanese exclusion amendment as an answer to what some senators believe was the "unprecedented" note of the Japanese government in opposing the pending immigration legislation.

Bonus adherents are confident their bill will be given the right of way over the taxes and claimed sufficient votes in the caucus to swing their program.

CONFERENCE JUST
'PASSES THE BUCK'

Washington, April 14.—The republican majority conference called today to plan the legislative program regarding immigration, taxes and houses, dodged every one of the major questions and "passed the buck" to the senate and the finance committee.

When the conference failed to express any preference as to whether bonus or taxes should come first before the senate, Chairman Smoot called a meeting of the finance committee to decide later in the day which bill is to be given the right of way.

The conference also failed to take any action regarding the proposal for a Japanese exclusion provision in the immigration bill—the third vital question which was to have been acted upon. This puts the question up to senators individually and does not pledge the party as a party to any course.

The majority of the conference voted in favor of a one per cent of the 1910 census quota for the new immigration law. This would cut the quota limitations of the Reed bill in half and completely alter the house bill which provided for a two per cent of the 1890 census.

TRY TO PUSH
BONUS BILL AHEAD

Washington, April 14.—Shouldering full responsibility, republican members of the senate finance committee today decided to get the bonus bill the right of way over the tax bill in the senate.

Chairman Smoot announced the bonus would be taken up Wednesday or Thursday and the tax bill would not be considered until the bonus bill had been disposed of.

This would delay consideration of the tax bill for at least ten days.

In order to get action on the bonus first, republican members of the committee were forced to take all respon-

RIGOROUS EFFORTS TO GUARD NEW
GREEK REPUBLIC

(By United Press)
Athens, April 14.—Rigorous measures were instituted today to guard the new Greek republic.

The republic was confirmed by an overwhelming majority in Sunday's popular plebiscite.

The government announced that formal discussion regarding the change in regime is forbidden for a period of five years and that activities against republican rule will be put down without mercy.

It is forecast that the first Greek president will be elected in June although a date has not yet been determined definitely.

Following the departure of former Premier Venizelos, ex-minister Zamilis is mentioned as a leading possibility for the post of chief executive. In some quarters, however, it is believed Venizelos may return and become a candidate.

TRIAL OF LANGLEY
SET FOR APRIL 28CONGRESSMAN CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY TO VIOLATE
PROHIBITION LAWS

(By United Press)
Washington, April 14.—Trial of Representative Langley of Kentucky, republican, indicted for conspiracy to violate the prohibition laws today was set for April 28th.

Early hearings of the Langley case was granted by the court on the plea of the congressman's attorney that his "political future, honor and liberty are at stake."

Langley will appear at Covington, Kentucky, tomorrow to answer an indictment brought against him there.

DAILY STAR ON SALE,
BUT NOBODY BIDDING;
PUZZLE FOR JUDGE

Minneapolis, April 14.—Stockholders of the Minnesota Daily Star, Minneapolis, Farmer-Labor daily, are not only holding the bag, but can't drop it, according to developments Saturday.

At 10 a. m. according to a recent district court order, sealed bids were to be opened for sale of the paper. Not one bid was offered.

Then George R. Smith, attorney for John Thompson, business manager of the paper; Thomas Van Lear, its president, and A. B. Frizzell offered on behalf of these three to pay $100,000 to keep the paper going and "pay off creditors as money was earned," or to pay $25,000 cash outright for all assets.

George B. Leonard, attorney for the receiver, declared such bids could not be considered, and court adjourned without action.

GERMANY ACCEPTS
REPARATION REPORT
MADE BY EXPERTS

(By United Press)
Berlin, April 14.—The German government this afternoon formally accepted in part the report of the experts' commission on reparations as forecast by the United Press.

Announcement came after a meeting of the state premiers and the cabinet.

stibility upon their own shoulders. The republican caucus failed to decide the question earlier in the day and most of the democratic members of the committee refused to vote.

FOUR MEN HELD BELIEVED TO BE
A BANDIT GANGST. PAUL POLICE QUESTION THEM
REGARDING MISCHUK
MURDERLATTER WAS SHOT DOWN TWO MONTHS AGO IN TERRIFIC FIGHT

(By United Press)
St. Paul, April 14.—Four men were held by police today out of a gang of a dozen questioned in connection with the murder of Michael Mischuk two months ago.

Police said they were members of a "bandit gang" lead by Christ Vaaca.

Mischuk was shot down by two bandits when they attempted to rob him of $1,400. The man put up a terrific fight and the bandits fled.

He is the proprietor of a rooming house. He was in the habit of cashing the boarders' checks and had just withdrawn the money from his bank when attacked.

Although he lived for a day, Mischuk refused to tell police who his murderers were, declaring he would "get them" when he got well. He died and police have been searching for two months for the men.

Vaaca, leader of the bandit gang, was killed more than a month ago when patrolmen surprised him and two companions entering a Minneapolis drug store. The two companions of Vaaca were caught later. One of them is said to have now confessed.

CLEARS UP HIDDEN
IDENTITY OF 50 YEARS

(By United Press)
Minneapolis, April 14.—An identity that has been hidden for 50 years appeared to be solved today.

"Robert T. Clark" of Philadelphia is convinced he is none other than the Frederick Lieb who at a tender age was kidnapped from his parents at Quincy, Illinois, June 3, 1871.

When Prof. W. H. Lieb died at Quincy a few months ago, the death account published a story of the kidnapping and there was a picture of "Freddie Lieb" as he appeared before he was kidnapped. Seeing the account in the newspaper, Clark recalled a copy of the picture in the home of his foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Winter at Norristown, Pa.

He compared the two and found them identical. Then he went to Quincy and followed up the investigation. From there he came to Minneapolis and convinced himself that Charles H. Lieb, living there, is his brother. Today he went to Hastings, Minnesota, to meet Mrs. Bessie Sutherland whom he is certain is his sister. The father, Professor Lieb, formerly lived in the Twin Cities.

KNUTSON FILES
FOR RE-ELECTION

(By United Press)
St. Paul, April 14.—Representative Harold Knutson, St. Cloud, now under bond pending action of a Maryland grand jury on a serious moral charge, today filed as a candidate for re-election.

Representative Knutson filed on the republican ticket. He represents the sixth district of Minnesota.

SEASON FOR TROUT
OPENS TOMORROW

(By United Press)
St. Paul, April 14.—The fishing season opens tomorrow—but for only one kind of fish.

That kind is trout—all varieties except lake trout. The open season on pike, pickerel, crappies, lake trout and other kinds except bass will begin the 15th of May. The bass season does not open until June 15th.

His Mistake

A magnificently attired washerwoman drove up in her limousine and delivered to a young professional man his weekly wash. He examined it, and then said, timidly:

"Excuse me, madam, but I'm afraid you've made a mistake, I gave you my shirt and, instead, you've brought me these very dilapidated old handkerchiefs."

The washerwoman looked into the parcel angrily.
"Pshaw!" she sniffed. "Them ain't handkerchiefs—them's your shirt."

Rescuing the Oldest Bible

The modern art of the camera has come to rescue the oldest known Bible from the inevitable deterioration of the years. Portions of this Bible belonging to the University of Michigan are being photographed, partly to preserve the disintegrating fragments and partly to put the fading papyrus in a substantial form available for study.
Only two professors have access to the fragments. One of them, Doctor Sandors, spent eighteen days piecing together one of the pages photographed.

Feeds Chickens Before Self

At the recent Country Life conference held in St. Louis a moving picture film was shown of a farm boy and his prize flock of chickens. The birds were fine because the boy had a scientific knowledge of chicken culture and had applied his knowledge to the care of his flock. But the boy was a mouth breather and showed further effects of malnutrition. The chickens were better cared for than the boy.

Jane Seymour's Ghost

Haunts Hampton Court

In a recent article by Alberic Cahuet on "The Ghosts of Fontainebleau," published in L'Illustration (Paris), according to a translation in the Kansas City Star, the writer said:

"In England, at Hampton Court, it is admitted that Jane Seymour, third wife of Henry VIII, comes back in the dead of night to wander through the corridors. Her ghost—a wraith with disheveled hair outlined in white light—has been seen. It is declared, on the little stairway which leads to the private apartment once occupied by the young queen. It is even claimed that the apparition has been photographed—witness the souvenir postcards sold by the caretaker at the castle."

It is frankly admitted that the postcard is intended simply to show what Jane's wraith looks like when it is photographed.

It will be remembered that Jane Seymour, Henry VIII's third wife, was married by this Bluebeard monarch
the day after the execution of his second wife, Anne Boleyn, in May, 1536.
Jane Seymour was then barely twenty years old. Hampton Court is one of the largest of the royal palaces of England, is of brick with crenellated walls, and was built by Cardinal Wolsey in 1515 as a gift to Henry VIII.
More than eight hundred of the thousand-odd rooms are today occupied by members of the British aristocracy who are lodged there gratuitously by the crown. It would appear from this that if the ghost of poor Jane Seymour still haunts the corridors of Hampton Court it runs the risk of encountering plenty of living persons.

His Mistake

A magnificently attired washerwoman drove up in her limousine and delivered to a young professional man his weekly wash. He examined it, and then said, timidly:
"Excuse me, madam, but I'm afraid you've made a mistake. I gave you my shirt and, instead, you've brought me these very dilapidated old handkerchiefs."
The washerwoman looked into the parcel angrily.
"Pshaw!" she sniffed. "Them ain't handkerchiefs—they're your shirt."

Rescuing the Oldest Bible

The modern art of the camera has come to rescue the oldest known Bible from the inevitable deterioration of the years. Portions of this Bible belonging to the University of Michigan are being photographed, partly to preserve the disintegrating fragments and partly to put the fading papyrus in a substantial form available for study. Only two professors have access to the fragments. One of them, Doctor Sanders, spent eighteen days piecing together one of the pages photographed.

Feeds Chickens Before Self

At the recent Country Life conference held in St. Louis a moving picture film was shown of a farm boy and his prize flock of chickens. The birds were fine because the boy had a scientific knowledge of chicken culture and had applied his knowledge to the care of his flock. But the boy was a month breather and showed further effects of malnutrition. The chickens were better cared for than the boy.

Old French Farming Families

The Merite Agricole is to be conferred on French families that have tilled the same soil for three centuries. There are 750 such families in France. One family has held the same land since the reign of Charlemagne. Another family at Colombes, near Gap, has worked its farm for 1,000 years.

Jane Seymour's Ghost

Haunts Hampton Court

In a recent article by Alberic Cahuet on "The Ghosts of Fontainebleau," published in L'Illustration (Paris), according to a translation in the Kansas City Star, the writer said:

"In England, at Hampton Court, it is admitted that Jane Seymour, third wife of Henry VIII, comes back in the dead of night to wander through the corridors. Her ghost—a wraith with disheveled hair outlined in white light—has been seen, it is declared, on the little stairway which leads to the private apartment once occupied by the young queen. It is even claimed that the apparition has been photographed—witness the souvenir postcards sold by the caretaker at the castle."

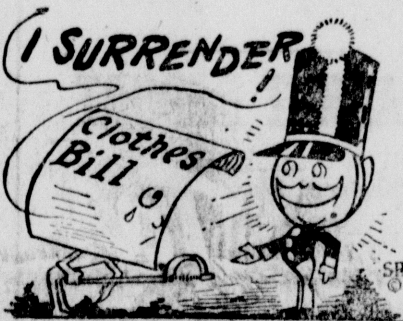

It is frankly admitted that the postcard is intended simply to show what Jane's wraith looks like when it is photographed.

It will be remembered that Jane Seymour, Henry VIII's third wife, was married by this Bluebeard monarch the day after the execution of his second wife, Anne Boleyn, in May, 1536. Jane Seymour was then barely twenty years old. Hampton Court is one of the largest of the royal palaces of England, is of brick with crenellated walls, and was built by Cardinal Wolsey in 1515 as a gift to Henry VIII. More than eight hundred of the thousand-odd rooms are today occupied by members of the British aristocracy who are lodged there gratuitously by the crown. It would appear from this that if the ghost of poor Jane Seymour still haunts the corridors of Hampton Court it runs the risk of encountering plenty of living persons.

PROGRAM MAKES GREAT APPEAL

Last Number of Season of Brainerd Musical Club Was Much Appreciated by Audience

THREE ARTISTS APPEARED

Mrs. McCoy Singer, Delphie Lindstrom Pianist and Louis Wolff as the Violinist

The last number of the Brainerd Musical club was an unqualified success. To many of the audience, the program made a greater appeal than any others of the year. The three artists were such masters of their art that every one felt profoundly moved.

Mrs. McCoy started the afternoon with the aria, "Caro Nome" from Rigoletto and gave it with such ease and such a mastery of her high notes that it was thoroughly enjoyed. Throughout the afternoon she made you feel that she loved to sing and felt absolutely at home. With it she has so charming a personality and appearance and such a command of mood and expression that she added that to her beautiful voice. In her second group she appealed to the audience even more.

In Curran's Nocturne she soared to Galli Curci heights with an ease that never made you feel that she "reached" for the notes, but rather that she could go higher yet did so so desire. In the "Parting Rose" and the "Answer" she showed much charm and power and brought out thoroughly the beauty of the songs. For encores she gave a sad minor, that brought tears, and the very merry cuckoo song.

Delphie Lindstrom was most successful, both as soloist and accompanist. In the two numbers by Debussy and the Etude in D flat by Liszt she showed technical and interpretative ability of high order. She has a very fine touch and mastery of the keys. As accompanist, she left nothing to be desired, following the person she accompanied with fine understanding.

Louis Wolff had his audience profoundly moved. Throughout the playing of the Fantasia Appassionata by Vieuxtemps he satisfied not only their appreciation of good playing, but stirred them to the depths. There was a quality to his playing that gripped them more and more as he proceeded. You felt that here was a man who was not merely a good technician, but a real artist with depth and feeling. This thought grew in the playing of his second group—the Nocturne E flat by Chopin-Sarasate and the Mazurka by Laryzcki. He showed every one that he was an artist far above the usual.

The last number was a trio, Leroux's "Le Nil," in which all three pleased their hearers. Not by any means least in pleasing the audience was the obvious comradeship among the three—a pleasure in playing together that put the audience in the right mood to begin with. It is to be hoped that the club can afford to have them again.

The year was brought to a successful close. Thanks for the Saturday programs are due to the committee, Mrs. George D. LaBar, Mrs. Walter F. Wieland and Mrs. J. A. Thabes.

DARKEN GRAY HAIR, LOOK YOUNG, PRETTY

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.—Advt.

Warden Destroys Fish Trap.

An Indian fish trap in the Charlton river, Missouri, which has been in use for 100 years, has just been destroyed by the game and fish commissioner.

Tagged Wild Goose Is Occasion for Revival

Jack Miner, of Kingsville, Ont., who has become noted for his ability to tame wild geese, made the experiment of fastening metal tags to a large number of them before turning them loose to resume their migrations. Thereby hangs an amusing tale.

A gray goose bearing one of his tags had been shot by some negroes in Mississippi. The negro who acquired this particular bird, it appears, was an illiterate preacher, possessed of great powers of speech. He insisted that the message came from heaven and made its receipt the occasion for a revival declaring to his credulous flock: "This am the message of the Lord, and now am the judgment coming." Some of the Indian hunters who have shot the tagged geese in the Far North have had a strange superstition about them, insisting that they belonged to the evil one, who had marked them as his own.

The result of Miner's experiments and observations may be summarized thus: He has definitely proved that birds do return to the same haunt year after year; that kindness will overcome fear even in the wildest of feathered folk; that geese travel over the same route in migration at a speed of about sixty miles an hour.—Albert F. Gilmore in the Christian Science Monitor.

Tibet Women Rule and Have Several Husbands

"In some of the principalities in eastern Tibet," said Dr. William Montgomery McGovern, the latest and best authority upon the only real hermit kingdom remaining on the face of the earth, "the rulers are women, and polyandry, which is practiced throughout the country, reaches its greatest heights, for some of them have their harems, as it were, but with a reverse English, because the inmates are men, who are never permitted to leave the place."

The doctor visited Detroit recently to lecture on his experiences in reaching the forbidden city of Lhasa, the capital of Tibet, the forbidden country.

"Polyandry is the practice, and wives have as many husbands as they apparently want. The country, curiously, is run by these married women, and the unmarried monks, for most of the worth while men join the religious order. The dominance of women has apparently not caused any perceptible lowering of the moral or social standards, but naturally there is little, if any, of the home life spirit found in occidental countries."—Jackson D. Haug in the Detroit News.

Horseshoes Sold for Gaming

Hardware dealers throughout the country are finding a ready sale for new horseshoes owing to the revival of the good old game of pitching horseshoes. Since the automobile came into such popular use fewer old horseshoes were available for this popular pastime, and the result has been that the demand for shoes caused hardware and sporting goods dealers to stock new ones. A new magazine, the Horseshoe World, has nothing whatever to do with shoeing horses, and is devoted exclusively to the game.

Floor of Pacific Still Rocks

Disturbances at the bottom of the northern end of the Pacific ocean have not come to an end, according to Captain John Newland, master of the steamer Latouche. These agitations have been evidenced in the past by the appearance and disappearance of islands. At a point 26 miles south-east of Cape St. Elias, where the chart said there should be a depth of 1,100 fathoms, Captain Newland recently found only 15 fathoms. Cape St. Elias is the southern end of Kayak island, 150 miles east of Seward.

Birthmarks Yield Radium

Birthmarks, even the dark-red "strawberry" blotches which disfigure so many countenances, may be eradicated by radium, according to Dr. Lawrence R. Tausig of the University of California. The eradication requires no great time and is not painful, Doctor Tausig asserts.—Popular Science Monthly.

Biggest Electric Light Bulb

The largest electric light bulb in the world was recently exhibited in East Orange, N. J., at the plant of the General Electric company. It is 25 inches high with a diameter of 15 inches at the top. Thirty thousand watts were required to heat it.

Might Go Either Way

Anxious Old Lady (on river steamer)—I say, my good man, is this boat going up or down?
Surly Deckhand—Well, she's a leaky old tub, ma'am, so I shouldn't wonder if she was going down. Then, again, her b'ilers ain't none too good, so she might go up.

Literary Conflagration

Two tourists, on passing a farm, saw a hay shed on fire, and the first man said, "John, of what three writers does that remind you?"

"I don't know."
"Dickens, Howitt, Burns."

His Real Trouble

Robson—Now that you are living in the country I should think you would find it aggravating to hurry to catch your morning train.

Dobson—Oh, no. It's hurrying to miss it that I find aggravating.

Astronomer of Vermont Has Telescope in Cave

Going underground to look at the heavens may seem like a strange anomaly; yet that is the method used by James Hartness, former governor of Vermont, noted inventor and manufacturer and amateur astronomer.

On his hillside estate at Springfield, Vt., Mr. Hartness has constructed the strangest astronomical observatory in the world—a subterranean cave of concrete, containing rooms fitted up as a laboratory, office, study and retiring and storage rooms, says the Kansas City Times. Connecting with his home by a 200-foot tunnel, the cave ends with the observation chamber, a concrete structure from which juts a cast-iron revolving turret that holds the telescope.

This observatory, says Popular Science Monthly, is little short of revolutionary from the standpoint of the orthodox astronomer. In fact, astronomers and makers of astronomical instruments, when they saw Mr. Hartness' plans, assured him that his observatory would be a failure, that air currents rising from his heated turret would obscure the skies from the eye of the telescope. But Mr. Hartness, father of more than one hundred important inventions, built the observatory as he planned and it has proved successful.

"When I first took up astronomy," says Mr. Hartness, "I found there were certain inconveniences connected with looking through the telescope I had mounted on my lawn. In the warm weather there were mosquitoes. In the fall and winter the cold winds chilled me to the bones. So I built my underground laboratory for self-protection, and I found I was helped rather than hampered by my lack of technical knowledge of approved methods."

Mah Jong Dermatitis Is the Newest Disease

Mah jong dermatitis is the latest thing in diseases. Devotees of the oriental game are given some facts concerning the disease—an irritation of the skin, according to Hygeia.

Mah jong cases are vanishing freely with Japanese lacquer, says the health journal, and in some instances the lacquer is soft and sticky. It has been scientifically proved that this improperly dried lacquer causes the skin disease which has been afflicting some of the players of the game.

Hundreds of thousands of mah jong sets are now in use in the United States, and only a few cases of the disease have been reported, but now that physicians are on the lookout for the disease others will probably be brought to light.

To prevent any possibility of the disease it will be necessary to see that the lacquer has been well applied and thoroughly dried before the boxes are shipped.

Not all, of course, are sensitive to the disease in an equal degree. Treatment for it is not difficult.

Those who are especially sensitive to the lacquer will have to be content with dominoes, rum or auction bridge, says the article.

Making Largest Carillon

What will be the world's largest carillon is being made in England for New York, where it will be installed in the tower of Park Avenue church by John D. Rockefeller, Jr., in memory of his mother. It is a tribute to British skill and workmanship that, in spite of keen international competition, the contract for this carillon was secured by a well-known firm of Croydon bellmakers. The carillon will number fifty-three bells whose total weight, without the framework, will be over fifty tons. The largest carillon up to now has been that at Malines, in Belgium.

Shaker Village for Sale

The Shaker village on Lake Macoma at Enfield, N. H., is for sale. Seven white-haired survivors of the original colony have moved to Canterbury and settled under the leadership of another dwindling community of Shaker folk. The correct name of the Shakers is "The United Society of True Believers in Christ's Second Appearance." The name "Shaker" was derived from a peculiar ceremonial dance in which the dancers shake their shoulders.

Scarcely Flattering

They had just renewed their acquaintance after he had been abroad for some years.

"Upon my word, Miss Hawkins," he said, "I should hardly have known you, you have altered so much."

"For-better or worse?" she asked.
"Ah, my dear girl," he replied, gallantly, "you could only change for the better."

No Picnic for Her

A woman with five children entered a car. She busied herself seating them. A benevolent old gentleman rose and gave her his seat.

"Are those all your children, madam?" he asked, "or is it a picnic?"
"They're all mine," snapped the woman, "and it's no picnic."

That Ended It

Two women were quarreling about ages. At last, as if to end the dispute, one of them turned away and said in a very conciliatory tone:

"Let us not quarrel any more. I, at least, have not the heart to do it. I never knew who my mother was! She deserted me when I was a baby, and who knows but that you may have been that heartless parent?"

Pretty Girls at New York Fashion Pageant Bask in Form-Fitting Suits Which Are To Be the Vogue

There is every indication that the form-fitting bathing suit will predominate at the beaches this season. The above photograph shows a group of girls who appeared at the fashion pageant wearing the very latest versions of the 1924 bathing costume.

He insisted that the message came from heaven and made its receipt the occasion for a revival declaring to his credulous flock: "This am the message of the Lord, and now am the judgment coming." Some of the Indian hunters who have shot the tagged geese in the Far North have had a strange superstition about them, insisting that they belonged to the evil one, who had marked them as his own. The result of Miner's experiments and observations may be summarized thus: He has definitely proved that birds do return to the same haunt year after year; that kindness will overcome fear even in the wildest of feathered folk; that geese travel over the same route in migration at a speed of about sixty miles an hour.—Albert F. Gilmore in the Christian Science Monitor.

Tibet Women Rule and Have Several Husbands

"In some of the principalities in eastern Tibet," said Dr. William Montgomery McGovern, the latest and best authority upon the only real hermit kingdom remaining on the face of the earth, "the rulers are women, and polyandry, which is practiced throughout the country, reaches its greatest heights, for some of them have their harems, as it were, but with a reverse English, because the inmates are men, who are never permitted to leave the place."

The doctor visited Detroit recently to lecture on his experiences in reaching the forbidden city of Lhasa, the capital of Tibet, the forbidden country.

"Polyandry is the practice, and wives have as many husbands as they apparently want. The country, curiously, is run by these married women, and the unmarried monks, for most of the worth while men join the religious order. The dominance of women has apparently not caused any perceptible lowering of the moral or social standards, but naturally there is little, if any, of the home life spirit found in occidental countries."—Jackson D. Haug in the Detroit News.

Horseshoes Sold for Gaming

Hardware dealers throughout the country are finding a ready sale for new horseshoes owing to the revival of the good old game of pitching horseshoes. Since the automobile came into such popular use fewer old horseshoes were available for this popular pastime, and the result has been that the demand for shoes caused hardware and sporting goods dealers to stock new ones. A new magazine, the Horseshoes World, has nothing whatever to do with shoeing horses, and is devoted exclusively to the game.

Floor of Pacific Still Rocks

Disturbances at the bottom of the northern end of the Pacific ocean have not come to an end, according to Captain John Newland, master of the steamer Latouche. These agitations have been evidenced in the past by the appearance and disappearance of islands. At a point 26 miles southeast of Cape St. Elias, where the chart said there should be a depth of 1,100 fathoms, Captain Newland recently found only 15 fathoms. Cape St. Elias is the southern end of Kayak island, 150 miles east of Seward.

Birthmarks Yield Radium

Birthmarks, even the dark-red "strawberry" blotches which disfigure so many countenances, may be eradicated by radium, according to Dr. Lawrence R. Taussig of the University of California. The eradication requires no great time and is not painful. Doctor Taussig asserts.—Popular Science Monthly.

Biggest Electric Light Bulb

The largest electric light bulb in the world was recently exhibited in East Orange, N. J., at the plant of the General Electric company. It is 22 inches high with a diameter of 15 inches at the top. Thirty thousand watts were required to heat it.

Might Go Either Way

Anxious Old Lady (on river steamer)—I say, my good man, is this boat going up or down?
Surly Deckhand—Well, she's a leaky old tub, ma'am, so I shouldn't wonder if she was going down. Then, again, her b'ilers ain't none too good, so she might go up.

Literary Conflagration

Two tourists, on passing a farm, saw a hay shed on fire, and the first man said, "John, of what three writers does that remind you?"

"I don't know."
"Dickens, Howitt, Burns."

His Real Trouble

Robson—Now that you are living in the country I should think you would find it aggravating to hurry to catch your morning train.

Dobson—Oh, no. It's hurrying to miss it that I find aggravating.

Astronomer of Vermont Has Telescope in Cave

Going underground to look at the heavens may seem like a strange anomaly; yet that is the method used by James Hartness, former governor of Vermont, noted inventor and manufacturer and amateur astronomer.

On his hillside estate at Springfield, Vt., Mr. Hartness has constructed the strangest astronomical observatory in the world—a subterranean cave of concrete, containing rooms fitted up as a laboratory, office, study and retiring and storage rooms, says the Kansas City Times. Connecting with his home by a 200-foot tunnel, the cave ends with the observation chamber, a concrete structure from which juts a cast-iron revolving turret that holds the telescope.

This observatory, says Popular Science Monthly, is little short of revolutionary from the standpoint of the orthodox astronomer. In fact, astronomers and makers of astronomical instruments, when they saw Mr. Hartness' plans, assured him that his observatory would be a failure, that air currents rising from his heated turret would obscure the skies from the eye of the telescope. But Mr. Hartness, father of more than one hundred important inventions, built the observatory as he planned and it has proved successful.

"When I first took up astronomy," says Mr. Hartness, "I found there were certain inconveniences connected with looking through the telescope I had mounted on my lawn. In the warm weather there were mosquitoes. In the fall and winter the cold winds chilled me to the bones. So I built my underground laboratory for self-protection, and I found I was helped rather than hampered by my lack of technical knowledge of approved methods."

Mah Jong Dermatitis Is the Newest Disease

Mah jong dermatitis is the latest thing in diseases. Devotees of the oriental game are given some facts concerning the disease—an irritation of the skin, according to Hygeia.

Mah jong cases are varnished freely with Japanese lacquer, says the health journal, and in some instances the lacquer is soft and sticky. It has been scientifically proved that this improperly dried lacquer causes the skin disease which has been afflicting some of the players of the game.

Hundreds of thousands of mah jong sets are now in use in the United States, and only a few cases of the disease have been reported, but now that physicians are on the lookout for the disease others will probably be brought to light.

To prevent any possibility of the disease it will be necessary to see that the lacquer has been well applied and thoroughly dried before the boxes are shipped.

Not all, of course, are sensitive to the disease in an equal degree. Treatment for it is not difficult.

Those who are especially sensitive to the lacquer will have to be content with dominoes, rum or auction bridge, says the article.

Making Largest Carillon

What will be the world's largest carillon is being made in England for New York, where it will be installed in the tower of Park Avenue church by John D. Rockefeller, Jr., in memory of his mother. It is a tribute to British skill and workmanship that, in spite of keen international competition, the contract for this carillon was secured by a well-known firm of Croydon bellmakers. The carillon will number fifty-three bells whose total weight, without the framework, will be over fifty tons. The largest carillon up to now has been that at Malines, in Belgium.

Shaker Village for Sale

The Shaker village on Lake Macoma at Enfield, N. H., is for sale. Seven white-haired survivors of the original colony have moved to Canterbury and settled under the leadership of another dwindling community of Shaker folk. The correct name of the Shakers is "The United Society of True Believers in Christ's Second Appearance." The name "Shaker" was derived from a peculiar ceremonial dance in which the dancers shake their shoulders.

Scarcely Flattering

They had just renewed their acquaintance after he had been abroad for some years.

"Upon my word, Miss Hawkins," he said, "I should hardly have known you, you have altered so much."

"For-better or worse?" she asked.
"Ah, my dear girl," he replied, gallantly, "you could only change for the better."

No Picnic for Her

A woman with five children entered a car. She busied herself seating them. A benevolent old gentleman rose and gave her his seat.

"Are those all your children, madam?" he asked, "or is it a picnic?"
"They're all mine," snapped the woman, "and it's no picnic."

That Ended It

Two women were quarreling about ages. At last, as if to end the dispute, one of them turned away and said in a very conciliatory tone:

"Let us not quarrel any more. I, at least, have not the heart to do it. I never knew who my mother was! She deserted me when I was a baby, and who knows but that you may have been that heartless parent?"

Pretty Girls at New York Fashion Pageant Bask in Form-Fitting Suits Which Are To Be the Vogue

There is every indication that the form-fitting bathing suit will predominate at the beaches this season. The above photograph shows a group of girls who appeared at the fashion pageant wearing the very latest versions of the 1924 bathing costume.

PRESIDENT C. D. JOHNSON

COL. C. D. JOHNSON now heads the Minnesota State Pharmaceutical association. Balloting was by mail and started last February, so no campaign speeches were necessary, in fact the colonel is so well known that the prestige of his oratorical powers, his ability as a druggist, his asset to the community was so much a matter of record, that the Johnson vote fairly inundated the committee of tellers.

When the Dispatch pressed Col. Johnson for his first utterance as president, he was coy and shy and stated the reason why. He has been elected, he said, but does not take office until next February. It seems these druggists are more careful than the average commonwealth in election matters. They have one president on the job and working full speed and another president duly elected and ready to step in the breach as soon as the present one's term expires.

Under such conditions, said President-elect Johnson, there will be no messages forthcoming on the druggists of Minnesota until he is duly installed next February.

TOO MUCH PEDDLING OF GLOOM

THERE has been too much of gloom peddled the past two years by those seeking to further their own interests by getting the farmers, business men, labor and capital all to feel sorry for themselves, says the Anoka Herald.

By these means an unhealthy atmosphere has been created. Poverty patter has been prevalent and many have concluded that the farming section of Minnesota is on the financial rocks. Nothing could be farther from the truth. The farmers have suffered just as all business has suffered. But their condition is growing steadily better just as all business is on the upgrade.

Dairy herds will help wonderfully and optimism and hard work will help even more. Let's eliminate the calamity howling and try other tactics for a while.

LOOKS LIKE THE YANKEES WILL WIN

EARLY dope seems to favor the Yankees to win the pennant again this year. This is based on the supposition that the machine will run as nicely as it did last year, that the pitching end will hold up and that their competitors will remain in status quo. Even Ban Johnson thinks the Yankees will win.

As to the Yankee crew, from Bush to Babe Ruth, they are confident of again gaining the coveted honor, and all Brainerd hopes Bush will again distinguish himself in a world's series battle.

THE VALUE OF A VACATION HERE

HIGH pressure work and no relaxation is what is cutting off 15 years of many persons' lives. The way to save that 15 years is to take a vacation of a week or more annually in the 10,000 lakes region of Brainerd.

The average man, according to Martin I. Foss, of Chicago, uses his brain all day and then instead of taking up physical exercise or change of vocation, continues piling on work on his mind by further reading or movies, etc.

THE CONGRESSMAN WINS

EDWARD CONSIDINE has been reappointed postmaster of Duluth and Congressman O. J. Larson has thus won his fight for his candidate. The postmastership had resolved into a test of strength between the congressman and Governor Preus. Washington advises state the president told the congressman that he would follow the advice of Postmaster General Harry S. New, without regarding the efforts of the governor who urged the candidacy of William C. Sargent.

HE CAN'T WITHDRAW

ATTENTION has been drawn by the Duluth News Tribune to the candidacy of Senator Hiram Johnson for the republican nomination for the presidency, and the suggestion is made that "he cannot withdraw." The paper states he has been defeated so often that announcement of a "withdrawal" would seem to be superfluous.

THE dairy problem, caused by the rush of foreign butter to our home markets and the consequent lowering of prices is more important to the farmers of this section than the wheat problem, says J. F. Reed, president of the Minnesota Farm Bureau federation. What tariff is in effect now is made obsolete by the varying rate of exchange.

THE Minneapolis Journal is running a series of front page articles on why taxation is taking more money out of Minneapolis and the taxpayers' pockets every year. In the sixth article is given statistics showing that the army of municipal employees, 9,300, almost equals a city the size of Brainerd.

CARDINALS HAYES AND MUNDELEIN IN ROBES OF OFFICE JUST AFTER BEING CREATED PRINCES OF CHURCH

This is the first authentic photograph to reach the United States showing the new American cardinals in their robes of office. Directly over the right shoulder of Cardinal Hayes of New York is his secretary, the Rev. Stephen Donoghue.

Business English Is Growing Much Better

Business English is growing better. So says Mrs. Alta Gunn, Saunders, director of business English work at the University of Illinois. She believes the English of sales letters has reached a standard as high as the general standard in advertising and in journalism.

To her way of thinking awkwardness and crudities of style are disappearing. She sees greater consideration for the artistic quality of the descriptive and narrative parts of letters. Slang, colloquialisms or starchy English she would not have—she likes her English "moral, social and artistic." Evolving is "a free, plain, tradesmanlike style becoming to the nature of its subject matter."

But where shall we tap the source of that style? Familiar is the sign "Tradesman's Entrance." Under that sign is a portal to give admittance to the crisp speeches of butchers, bakers and candlestick makers—men of importance with scant time to dress words in ceremonies of speech. From them come no "stereotyped and inflated diction," condemned by Mrs. Saunders. Their words get up and walk around in our ears. Their words carry the tang and savor of their business. Possibly it might be desirable to denature the raw material of their conversations before drawing upon them for letters, but if men's minds are to be spared for a crop of sales, success will be no nearer for calling the spade an "oblong instrument of manual husbandry."—Nation's Business.

New York Woman Acts as Surgeon for Birds

Acting as a surgeon for birds is the occupation of a New York woman who performs operations upon her feathered charges and cures for their various ills. Rheumatism, indigestion and fevers are some of the ailments she has treated. Surgical operations are performed in a completely equipped room on the third floor of the hospital she maintains. With several assistants, she is called upon to minister to the needs of more than 2,000 birds in the summer months when families leave for vacations and bring their pets to be "boarded" in the wards of the hospital while they are gone. The birds like to be amused and show interesting characteristics, their keeper declares. Balls, beads and ribbons hung from the cages keep them from pulling out their plumage and music from a phonograph seems to cheer them when their own songs are silenced.—Popular Mechanics.

Albino Partridge Bagged

An Albino partridge, mounted, is exhibited here by George Suggs and Albert Rountree. Shot some miles from this city, it was one of a covey, conventionally covered, but was the only white bird in the flock, says a Kingston (N. C.) dispatch to the New York World. It is almost entirely white, a few feather tips only showing the familiar brown of the species. The bird has aroused keen interest on the part of Eugene Wood, the coroner and noted sportsman, who last year claimed to have discovered a flock of white crows near Griffin.

Chickens Dig Gold

Using her chickens as gold diggers, Mrs. Robert Rankin of Contra, Cal., has a collection of gold nuggets ranging in size from that of a pinhead to a buckshot which she has taken from the crabs of the chickens. The Rankin home is northwest of Yreka, where placer gold is often found on the surface of the ground, and where ambitious boys and girls can sometimes pan out enough "dust" to supply them with pocket money.

Same Knife and Fork

In every meal but three in the last thirty-two years A. E. Flinn of Luray, Va., has used the same knife and fork. Both the knife and fork were found by Mr. Flinn, one in the east end of Luray and the other in the west end of the town. The knife and fork have almost been worn out of all semblance of themselves, but it would require a fabulous price for the owner to part with them.

Tribute to College Girl

Dr. Katherine Bennett Davis, who has had long official connection with the penal institutions of New York city, says that in her twenty-five years' experience with penology she has never known a college girl graduate serving time for criminal offense in a penal institution.

Years Don't Stop Her

Mrs. Mary French Sheldon, writer, explorer, globe-trotter, artist, big game hunter, linguist and physician, is still active on the lecture platform at the age of seventy-eight. Mrs. Sheldon has the distinction of being the first woman ever made a fellow of the Royal Geographical society.

No Free Admissions

"Sure, mum, an' you didn't want two to come in w' one ticket, did you?"

Good Work!

A Detroit judge fined three young men $5 and costs with an alternative of ten days in the house of correction for reading subtitles aloud in a picture theater.

Pep and Ambition

Pep is something that is likely to pester those associated with the man who has it, while ambition inspires only its possessor.

SULPHUR IS BEST TO CLEAR UP UGLY SKIN

Any breaking out or skin irritation on face, neck or body is overcome quickest by applying Menthosulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation that instantly brings ease from the itching, burning and irritation.

Menthosulphur heals eczema right up, leaving the skin clear and smooth. It seldom fails to relieve the torment or disfigurement. A little jar of Rowley's Menthosulphur may be obtained at any drug store. It is used like cold cream.—Advt.

Monitor and Merrimac.

On May 15, 1862, in company with the Galena, the Naugatuck, Port Royal, and Aroostook, the Monitor participated in an unsuccessful attempt to capture Richmond, and on December 31, 1862, while en route to Beaufort, N. C., she foundered in stormy weather off Hatteras, four officers and seventeen men being drowned. The Merrimac was destroyed when the Norfolk yard was evacuated by the Confederates on May 11, 1862.

Stringed Instruments From Egypt.

Stringed musical devices, thought to have originated in Europe during the Middle Ages, came from the Egyptian lute.

Pearl Fishing in Ceylon.

The pearl fishing season in Ceylon only lasts 22 days, and during that period as many as 15,000,000 oyster are brought to the surface.

SULPHUR IS BEST TO CLEAR UP UGLY SKIN

Any breaking out or skin irritation on face, neck or body is overcome quickest by applying Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation that instantly brings ease from the itching, burning and irritation.

Mentho-Sulphur heals eczema right up, leaving the skin clear and smooth. It seldom fails to relieve the torment or disfigurement. A little jar of Rowies' Mentho-Sulphur may be obtained at any drug store. It is used like cold cream.—Adv't.

BRAINERD BOYS BAND TRIUMPH

"Musical Evening" Presented at New Park Theatre Pleased Large Audience

BAND FOLLOWS DIRECTOR

Every Move of His Baton Given
Quick Response by Band
Members

When it was stated that there would be many surprises in store for those who attended the Brainerd Boys Band concert on Friday evening at the New Park theatre, the facts were stated very mildly. Everyone seemed to be more than pleased with the Musical Evening, for the boys did much better than was expected, and surprised their hearers from the first number to the last.

The concert started promptly at eight o'clock. The boys played their first number as the curtain was raised, making a very impressive appearance in their full-length white trousers, white shirts and black ties, and were given their first big ovation.

The next number, a valse lento, was played with much expression, and the expectancy in the audience grew more and more as the piece progressed. The next number was "Overture Debutante" which gave the youthful organization an opportunity to exhibit its knowledge and advancement in music. Nearly every instrument was given a chance in this number to show the skill of its player. The first two measures opened with horn solos and the boys played it so well that it sounded like a great organ.

The band followed its director absolutely, every piano, crescendo, forte, etc., were very closely observed. The tempos were exact and the overture was played in a well finished manner. This number alone showed that in Prof. Hugo Pflock the band has a very able director and teacher. It also shows the results of much tireless and persistent work on the part both director and players, for the overture was rendered in a faultless manner.

Elmer Peterson played two clarinet solos, making a very good impression on his hearers. The first was Danco Joyous, which gave him an opportunity to show his technique. His second number, Mendelssohn's Spring Song, a favorite with most music lovers, showed that his tone and interpretation were perfect.

Elmer Peterson has been a special student of Mr. Pflock's for some time, and on the evening of the concert was just recovering from a sore lip, which caused him to work under difficulties. However, the audience was so pleased with his playing that he was called back to repeat the last number.

Arden Miller, proved to be the boy comedian of the band, and took his audience by storm with his two-act sketches, "I Am That Guy" and "The Clock is Playing." It is seldom that a vaudeville artist is accorded the applause that young Miller received.

"The Village Band," a one-act novelty, kept the audience in an uproar from beginning to end. Nothing like it has ever been staged in Brainerd. The principal figure was Dry Skinner, played by Ray Rimmels, who seemed to live his part and incidentally showed the importance of a bass drum in any band.

Hans Pflock, the bandmaster of the hick band, showed his talent as a performer and did remarkably well. Ole Svenson, janitor, found in Ben Benson a good imitator, his Swedish dialect causing much merriment.

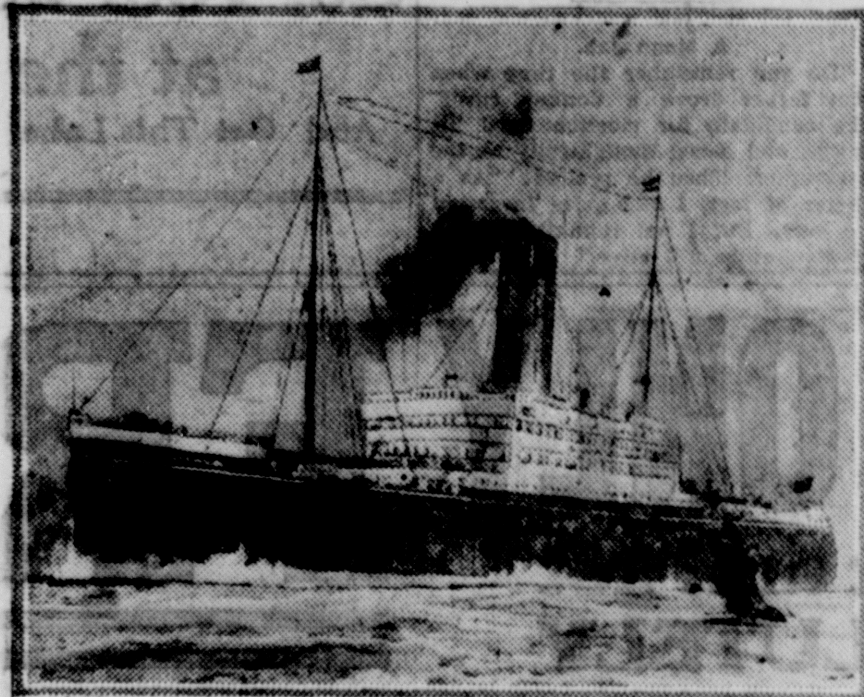

The other members of the cast assisted greatly in putting over the play in a masterly manner, and gave evidence that the boys had given no little time to this feature of the program.

Mr. Pflock rendered two saxophone solos, Miss Beatrice Stearns acting as his accompanist. The director's interpretation of this popular instrument brought forth many favorable comments, and much applause, so that he responded with several encores, one "Laughing Gas" was so well received that he was required to repeat it. No one knew that Mr. Pflock was an artist on the saxophone this being his first appearance in public with that instrument.

The B. B. B. March, written especially for the occasion by Director Pflock, and dedicated to the local Lions club, was a very brilliant composition, and was accorded a big ovation. The director proved himself a fine composer as well as a teacher and leader, in this number.

The "Moonlight Serenade" showed that the band is capable of playing slow music well, in time and with expression, as a slow number is much harder to play than a fast one.

MINNESOTA NAMES FOR $5,000,000 STEAMSHIPS

Steamship Minnetonka, named for a Minnesota lake. A sister ship is called the Minnewaska.

New York—An event in transatlantic shipping of current interest to the people of Minnesota is the recent maiden voyage of the largest transatlantic passenger liner to be built in a British shipyard this year, which bears the name of Minnetonka, for one of Minnesota's most beautiful lakes.

Last year the owners of this vessel, the Atlantic Transport Line of New York and London, brought out a similar ship, which was named Minnewaska. This name also, as most Americans know, is that of a lake in Minnesota. The ships cost more than $5,000,000 each.

The reasons prompting the steamship company to give its new vessels—which are of the luxury liner type—the names of lakes in an American state far from the sea, reveal the effect of sentiment in business. Before the world war the line built up a large following with ships distinguished by Indian names. It was found that such names appealed to Americans, who had no difficulty in remembering them.

The original ships having been lost by enemy action in the war, the company has decided to give their names to new vessels as they are built to replace them. All the names begin with the prefix "Minne" from the Dakota tongue, meaning water. Names reserved for future ships of the line are Minnehaha and Minneapolis, both having been borne by liners that were lost in the war.

Before naming its two new liners, which are large vessels, of 21,700 tons each, the Atlantic Transport Line made careful inquiry as to the meaning of the names, and the history of the lakes to which they pertained, in order to place the information before travelers of European countries who are unfamiliar with American Indian names.

It was found that Lake Minnewaska at one time bore an Indian name meaning Dish Lake, because of its being in a low basin. By act of legislature, in 1883, it was officially named Minnewaska. The Indian name of Lake Minnetonka was made its official name by Governor Ramsey in 1862.

The region about both lakes was formerly inhabited by Sioux and Chippewa Indians, both of whom spoke the Dakota language.

Dr. Melvin R. Gilmore, of the Museum of the American Indian, New York, says, "Without doubt the names Minnewaska and Minnetonka are from the Dakota language. In both names the element "minne" is a variation of spelling of the Dakota word for water, which is mini. Mini-wa-ska-ya has the meaning "water which becomes white." The white man omits the suffix "ya."

"The meaning of the second name, Minnetonka, is obvious, being clearly from mini, the Dakota word for water, and tanka, the Dakota word for large or great."

"Humoresque, Who is Next?" made a big hit, and was so well rendered and received that it had to be played a second time. Every instrument had a strong part in this selection, from the piccolo, in the capable hands of Guy Hawkins, down to the bass drum.

The fox trot, "Just One More Kiss" and the "Loyalty March" concluded the program, the audience being dismissed with the Star Spangled Banner.

Director Pflock states that he received many calls the morning after the concert, from enthusiastic people, who congratulated him on the success of the occasion, on the work that he and the boys had given to the preparation of the program, and the wonderful advancement shown in the band.

Some remarked that it was among the best programs given this season, and that they would like to see it repeated at an early date. It is the director's opinion that a packed house could be secured again if the concert was repeated.

The children's matinee on Friday afternoon was not as well attended as had been hoped, only about 125 tickets being sold. It was hoped that practically every child in the city

You Can "Shoo" Bears Away if You Know How

Mostly bears are humorous clowns, lazy, good natured, whose general appearance is of one who would like not only to live at peace with life, but who would love to sit fatly down and joke about it.

But once in a blue moon there is a cattle killing, swashbuckling, dare-devil outlaw among the lot, and he gives a reputation to the whole tribe.

Rare even in the case of the famous grizzly, this is especially so in the case of the black or brown bear. The latter is essentially a peace loving citizen. His main desire is to get away. Even when encountered at such close quarters that most animals put up a panic fight, his mind is still focused on getting away.

He is very fond of wild berries and may frequently be encountered in the berry patches. Becoming aware of the presence of humans—also after berries—he stands up on his hind legs the better to see what it is all about. With wild yells the humans decamp. If they had waited two seconds longer they would have seen the bear light out as vigorously in the opposite direction.

Jim Laney, out in the berry patch looking for a stray horse, had a black bear rise up to look at him right in his face. The animal must have been asleep, or much preoccupied with the berries. Jim was carrying a bridle and with it he fetched the bear a clip across the nose.

"Get out of here!" Jim advised the bear.

And the bear promptly got. Jim knew bears; the average tenderfoot would have had "a narrow escape."—Saturday Evening Post.

ALFALFA CROPS TO BE RAISED

County Agent Explains Preparation of Soil and Offers Suggestions

HOW TO START THE FIELD

Proffers Also to Test Soil Free of Charge For Any Applying

Many Crow Wing county farmers are planning to put in a crop of alfalfa this year for the first time, and since the preparation of the soil and the care of the growing alfalfa will be new to them, County Agent E. G. Roth offers the following suggestions, which should be of material assistance in starting the field:

Lay of Land

Alfalfa does best on well drained soil, that is, at least 5 feet before you reach standing water. Alfalfa does not do well on low ground and therefore cannot be planted in meadows unless the water-level is 5 feet below the surface.

Soil

Any type of soil that we have in Crow Wing county will grow alfalfa providing it is not sour or acid.

If soil is sour or acid, marl or ground lime stone applied at the rate of two to four tons to the acre will sweeten this and alfalfa can be then grown successfully.

Test Your Soil

Send a teaspoonful of your soil to the county agent from the land on which you expect to grow alfalfa. He will test it for you free of charge and will tell you whether the land is sour or acid. Find out if your soil is sweet.

Soil Preparation

Alfalfa does best on new ground and the better the soil the better crop of alfalfa can be expected. Alfalfa land should be free from weeds, should be fall-plowed or planted on a field that had a cultivated crop the year before. This should be thoroughly disced and worked in the spring before planting as a good seed bed gives the best results. If the soil is very light, rolling it will give good results.

Time to Plant

Any time from April 1st to July 15th. Get your land in good shape. Then put in your seed. Try to get it in the ground just before or during a rainy spell. Drill one and one-half inches deep in light soil and one inch in heavy soil.

Nurse Crop

A nurse crop of oats, wheat, barley or flax may be used if there is plenty of moisture available. The nurse crop should be planted thin and if dry weather threatens cut off for hay so that there will be plenty of moisture for the young alfalfa plants. Alfalfa does best without a nurse crop, especially on the lighter soils. The middle of June is a good time to plant on the light soils without a nurse crop, working the land until then to kill any weeds and keep the moisture.

Inoculate Seed

Be sure that your seed is inoculated on fields that have never grown alfalfa before. This is important. I have sent for inoculation for every farmer that ordered seed and should reach you through the mail not later than April 30th. Follow the directions on the bottle. If this does not reach you in time, use dirt from an old alfalfa field. Take dirt near live, healthy plants. Screen the dirt through a sieve and mix the dry dirt and seed, using equal parts of each. This inoculates the seed thoroughly. In order to seed, open drill nearly twice as wide and you can seed readily.

Kind of Seed

Use only Grimm or Consack seed as common varieties kill out in our cold winters.

Self-Taught Artist.

J. W. Hovey, a self-taught artist, who earns a livelihood as a collector for a gas company, has had one of his paintings accepted for exhibition at the Royal Academy in London.

The Grizzly's No Slouch.

The lion may be the king of beasts, but it's lucky for him he doesn't live in the climate which breeds grizzly bears.

Electric Lights in U. S.

America uses nearly twice as much electric light as the people of the next seven most important countries combined.

Largest Kauri Tree in World.

New Zealand now claims the world's largest Kauri tree. This giant of the forest has a vast trunk that rises to a height of 75 feet before the first branch appears. It is estimated to be about 2,000 years old, and has a diameter of 22 feet. Owing to its circumference of nearly 70 feet it would be difficult to fell it.

When We Kill Time.

When people kill time, it is the 1,000,000 years past and the 1,000,000 years to come that they're thinking of.

Entirely Tactless.

Why spoil a man's artless happiness in public by pointing out to him that his pants are not pressed?

Quite Frequently.

Generous men have many friends and frequently need them more than an ungenerous man does.

'Twas Ever So.

Every day a man is likely to see others in possession of something which he feels he could enjoy so much more than they seem to.

A Mean Job.

"Do you remember the time when your father drove a donkey cart?" The candidate for election fixed his glasses and gazed thoughtfully at the interrupter. Then he replied: "As a matter of fact, I had quite forgotten the cart. But I am thankful to see the donkey is still alive."

As Others See Us

IN ITS issue of March 5, the Gazette, of Hutchinson, Kansas, says:

"THE BRIGHT SIDE"

The Standard Oil Company gets into print often but never on account of trouble with its employees. Arthur Brisbane says the company is the best managed business organization in the world.

The entire oil business has been singularly free from labor troubles which have beset many of the other major industries. Reasons for this can be found in the fact of the rapid growth of the industry, the payment of relatively high wages and the shifting of producing and refining centers.

The oil companies, however, have not been content to allow harmony to rest entirely with conditions. Efforts have been made, in the Standard and other companies, to obtain the greatest harmony possible among the workers. The Standard of Indiana was a pioneer in fostering a policy granting employees, through their elected representatives, a voice in settlement of all questions affecting their welfare, as to wages, hours of labor and working conditions.

How the plan is working is expressed by Colonel Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of directors, who says:

"The greatest thing needed in American industry today is a better understanding between employees and management. The day of intolerant and drastic methods by either the leaders of capital or labor is past. Each needs the other, and the policy of establishing good-will, peace and understanding have been established between the management and employees of our company.

"For five years we have worked together in mutual esteem and trust. For the board of directors, I say to you that while the problems presented by the situation in the oil industry today are stupendous, we face them with a greater confidence because we feel that we have back of us the whole-hearted support of every man and woman in the Standard Oil Company (Indiana)."

The oil business has its virtues as well as its foibles, if conducted properly."

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has been relatively free from labor troubles because justice, equity and fairness are fundamental to the organization.

Without loyalty, earnestness and complete harmony in its organization of 27,000 men and women, this Company would be unable to render to the thirty million people of the Middle West, the comprehensive service which they now enjoy and which is so essential to their commercial and domestic life.

ALFALFA CROPS TO BE RAISED

County Agent Explains Preparation of Soil and Offers Suggestions

HOW TO START THE FIELD

Proffers Also to Test Soil Free of Charge For Any Applying

Many Crow Wing county farmers are planning to put in a crop of alfalfa this year for the first time, and since the preparation of the soil and the care of the growing alfalfa will be new to them, County Agent E. G. Roth offers the following suggestions, which should be of material assistance in starting the field:

Lay of Land

Alfalfa does best on well drained soil, that is, at least 5 feet before you reach standing water. Alfalfa does not do well on low ground and therefore cannot be planted in meadows unless the water-level is 5 feet below the surface.

Soil

Any type of soil that we have in Crow Wing county will grow alfalfa providing it is not sour or acid.

If soil is sour or acid, marl or ground lime stone applied at the rate of two to four tons to the acre will sweeten this and alfalfa can be then grown successfully.

Test Your Soil

Send a teaspoonful of your soil to the county agent from the land on which you expect to grow alfalfa. He will test it for you free of charge and will tell you whether the land is sour or acid. Find out if your soil is sweet.

Soil Preparation

Alfalfa does best on new ground and the better the soil the better crop of alfalfa can be expected. Alfalfa land should be free from weeds, should be fall-plowed or planted on a field that had a cultivated crop the year before. This should be thoroughly disced and worked in the spring before planting as a good seed bed gives the best results. If the soil is very light, rolling it will give good results.

LIQUIDATION OF BANK'S ASSETS

J. H. Kinney, of the state banking department, has arrived in the city and has taken charge of the receivership of the Brainerd State bank, which closed a week ago.

It is understood that Mr. Kinney will proceed with the liquidation of the bank's assets unless some arrangements are made to reopen the institution.

Frank T. Artig, state bank examiner, is still in the city, going over the affairs of the bank, and checking up its accounts.

H. E. Kundert, cashier, who has been confined to his home since his accident of last Monday morning, is able to be down town, and was at the bank today. He has no statement prepared for publication at this time.

Handkerchief Shower

Mrs. Clarence Olson of Billings, Montana, who is visiting at the home of her sister Mrs. George Hess, was tendered a handkerchief shower last Friday evening at the home of Mrs.
Hess. About thirty friends were present.

The evening was spent informally, renewing acquaintances, after which a delicious luncheon was served.

Mrs. Olson is a former resident of Brainerd, having lived here seven years prior to moving to Billings.

Stowe-Hellier

Married by Rev. August Samuelson at Clara Lutheran parsonage this morning William F. Stowe and Lillie R. Hellier, both of Cross Lake, Minnesota.

The bridegroom is a miner at Bovey, Minnesota, where the young couple will reside.

son and Marcelle Huseby.

Planolog—Marjorie Forsberg.

Xylophone solo—O. M. Risberg accompanied by Miss Marion Opsahl.

Recitation—Esther Gallagher.

Anyone having children on the program are especially urged to attend thereby encouraging their children and are requested to have a way provided to get the children home right after the program. If the children are too small to go home alone
it will be well to have a large child accompany them to the program so the parents can remain for the meeting.

EASTER MONDAY

DANCE OF FIREMEN

To be Given April 21 at Elks Hall by Members of Co. No. 2 of Department

DANCING FROM 9 TO 12

Music For Old Style Dances As Well as the Newest Steps

An Easter Monday dance will be given on Monday evening, April 21st, in Elks hall, by members of Hose Company No. 2, of the Brainerd
Fire Department.

The Firemen have given the Easter dances for over forty years.
Some of the older members of the department have witnessed many changes in the style of dancing during that long period.

At this Easter dance the Firemen will endeavor to have music for the old style dances, as well as the modern steps.

A very delicious beverage will be served during the evening free of charge, made possible by the kindness of the Brainerd Bottling Works.

Dancing will commence at nine o'clock sharp and will continue until twelve o'clock. The hall will be properly policed.

Music will be furnished by a local orchestra, of which Oscar M. Risberg is leader.

Through the Lyceum and New Park theatres, as well as the Brainerd Dispatch, the occasion will be well advertised, thus assuring a large attendance.

Admission will be $1 per couple, with no charge for extra ladies. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Magazine Contributions

Will those who have saved magazines for the First Baptist Ladies Aid
bring them to the church Monday,
Tuesday or Wednesday of this week?
If it is impossible for you to bring them to the church, please call either
Mrs. Henry Olson or Mrs. Walter Murphy.

H. N. WHEELER TO LECTURE IN CITY

Is Chief of Public Relations of the United States Forest Service

NATURAL RESOURCES TOPIC

Will Address Local High School
Wednesday Afternoon and Lions Club in Evening

H. N. Wheeler, chief of public relations of the United States Forest Service, Denver, Colorado, is giving his services during the month of April to the Minnesota Forestry Department, on a lecture tour throughout the state, in an educational series of addresses on conservation of the natural resources.

Mr. Wheeler will be in Brainerd on Wednesday, April 16th, and will address the Brainerd high school at three o'clock that afternoon. He will speak before the local Lions club at its regular luncheon Wednesday evening at the Ransford hotel, and before the Lions club of Little Falls on the evening of April 17th.

Other speaking dates include Aitkin on April 18th and 19th and in Duluth the first of next week.

Those who have been so fortunate as to hear Mr. Wheeler speak state that he is a very capable and interesting lecturer, and has his subject very well in hand. He brings a message of importance to this section of the state.

E. H. Rhodes, local forester, had hoped to secure Mr. Wheeler for other appointments in Brainerd at this time, but the speaker's dates are all taken in an effort to cover the state during the month.

Junior Society

The Junior Society had charge of the Christian Endeavor meeting at the Swedish Bethany church Sunday evening and gave an interesting program.

Historical sketches and interesting occurrences connected with a large number of the most popular songs, were read by the children, and following each sketch, the song referred to was sung by the society.

The program was greatly enjoyed by those present and is worthy of special mention inasmuch as the members are boys and girls from 8 to 15 years of age.

FARRELL PICKS YANKS IN AMERICAN

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, April 14.—As soon as the New York Yankees fall apart, a critic aptly and wisely sized up the American League last winter, some other strong club can step out with a chance of winning the pennant.

There is nothing to indicate at the current writing that the world's champions are even crumbling, let alone falling apart. There is a slight chance that one or, at the worst, two of the star pitchers might go wrong, but there would be sufficient strength left to carry through a team that is very capable on the offense.

For the reason that the Yankees are just as good, if not a little better, than they were last year and that their most powerful opposition has not been correspondingly improved, there is no cause to believe that Miller Huggins will not be the first manager to attain the fame and the record of winning four pennants in consecutive years.

Realizing that the strength of the challenging teams is more than unusually balanced and that there are the possibilities for some great surprises that cannot be figured or anticipated, the following is offered as a prediction of how the teams will stand when the race is ended:

NEW YORK YANKEES
CLEVELAND INDIANS
PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS
DETROIT TIGERS
WASHINGTON SENATORS
BOSTON RED SOX
ST. LOUIS BROWNS
CHICAGO WHITE SOX

The Yankees are picked to win the pennant again, because they have a fine offensive and defensive team, a powerful hitting and a good fielding team and the best pitching staff in the league. They should have more confidence than they had last year before they had won a world's series and they are too experienced and too balanced to be in danger of getting enlarged skulls and taking it too easy.

It was not until last fall that the club really found itself and it is sure to be improved by the feeling that it was good enough to beat in the world's series what had been held up as one of the finest teams in baseball.

The Cleveland Indians were nosed out of second place last fall by the late rush of the Detroit Tigers after they had did what running-up there could be said to have been done to the Yankees throughout the hottest part of the pennant race.

With George Burns on first base and with improved work that should be expected from several young pitchers, the Indians should finish in second place and, if the Yankees crash, they are the logical club to step into the pennant.

Freberg Throws Dashler With Three Headlocks

Red Wing, April 14.—John Freberg, Swedish heavyweight wrestling champion, defeated Matt Dashler, local mat artist, here, winning the first fall in 51 minutes with a flying headlock.

Dashler was hurt so badly that he was unable to continue the match.

The Red Wing grappler was making a good showing, when Freberg secured three headlocks in succession. The third put Dashler unconscious, and he was out for ten minutes.

Irish Kennedy, St. Paul, shaded Johnny Gerarden, Minneapolis, in a four-round boxing bout, a preliminary to the wrestling match.

Labor Member Reported King Was "Unco Nice"

After supper we adjourned to the main parlor, in which a huge fire had been built, and Ramsay MacDonald, seated in a big armchair, with his long legs stretched to the grating and his head resting comfortably on the back of the chair, took out his old pipe—truth makes me confess it should be cleaned—and regaled us with funny stories for the next three hours, telling his experiences in the house of commons and with royalty. One of his jokes I must tell, writes William H. Crawford in Collier's.

One labor member had done some excellent work in foreign lands. The king, knowing of it, sent for him to congratulate him for his service. He came to Mr. MacDonald, saying: "Ramsay, I don't like to go to visit the king. I'll tell you what I did and let you tell him," but Mr. MacDonald insisted that it would be impolite for him to refuse to visit the king. With much perturbation the labor member went to Buckingham palace.

The following day, when MacDonald saw him, he was all smiles. "How did you come out, Sandy?"

"Fine. The king was unco nice."

"Tell me all about it."

"Weel, it was like this. I was scared; me' teeth were shakin' when his majesty came in. He noticed my nervousness and said: 'You don't come to the palace often,' at which I admitted it was no' to my likin' to come at all. He looked at me, smiled, and said, 'Here, sit down here in the corner. Have a smoke, make yourself at home. You swear, don't you? Weel, swear awa'.' And in five minutes we were swearin' awa' tgether like ony brothers."

AMUSEMENTS

Strong Cast for Talmadge Film

The cast of "The Dangerous Maid," a First National picture, is the greatest ever selected to support Constance Talmadge. It will be shown at the New Park on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Besides Constance Talmadge, there are Conway Tearle, her leading man; Morgan Wallace, Tully Marshall, Marjorie Daw, Charles Gerrard, Lou Morrison, Otto Matieson, Wilson Hummel, Kenneth Gibson, Ann May, Kate Price, Thomas Ricketts, Phillip Dunham, Jack Dillon and Ray Hallor. It is a Joseph M. Schenck production.

The story of "The Dangerous Maid" is laid in the turbulent times when the Duke of Monmouth rebelled against King James II of England. Constance Talmadge has the role of a madcap little rebel who dons a cavalier's sword and costume and engages in a thrilling series of adventures with the officers of the king.

Advice to Girls

By Pola Negri
My advice to any girl who contemplates engaging in motion picture work, is to ask yourself this question: "Am I prepared for hard work?"

You must also ask, "Am I ready to spend my leisure time in study? Am I willing to bring all my faculties to the task of understanding the terse directions, which a busy director will give me, when he is directing a scene? Am I content to work long hours without recognition in the hope some day my reward will come?" When you ask yourself this question and answer "Yes," be sure that you mean what you say. If you don't the actual test of WORK will discover the self deception you have practiced.

When you are given a role to play—however small—try to realize just what sort of a person your character

would be in real life. Try to get "inside" your character, as the saying is. Decide for yourself what that person's ideas would be and what the outlook upon life would be in her station. Think about your character all the time. Visualize her in relation to the whole story of which she is a part.

Remember, if you would succeed on the screen, you must face the most critical judges in the world. "The Spanish Dancer" has its last showings at the Lyceum tonight and Tuesday.

Irene Rich, Ben Alexander, Henry B. Walthall in "Boy of Mine"

Ben Alexander Cast in Perfect Role

Ben Alexander, one hundred per cent American boy, who recently became numbered among First National screen stars, precipitated by his acknowledged triumph as "Penrod" in "Penrod and Sam," surpasses all previous honors won, in the J. K. McDonald production, "Boy of Mine," another Booth Tarkington story.

Ben Alexander has climbed steadily toward stardom since his first important recognition in "Hearts of the World," and is one of the few professional children, who, as they grow older, holds fast to charm identified with extreme youth.

In "Boy of Mine," Ben carries an important role, in company with Henry B. Walthall, Irene Rich and Rockliffe Fellowes. At the New Park last time tonight. Reduced prices for kids.

Floyd Fitzsimmons indicated the contemplated change Saturday and promised a definite announcement later.

The change of dates will permit Carpenter to keep his contract with Fitzsimmons to do his first American fight in the arena here and to carry out his contract to meet Gene Tunney in the east June 16.

Labor Member Reported King Was "Unco Nice"

After supper we adjourned to the main parlor, in which a huge fire had been built, and Ramsay MacDonald, seated in a big armchair, with his long legs stretched to the grating and his head resting comfortably on the back of the chair, took out his old pipe—truth makes me confess it should be cleaned—and regaled us with funny stories for the next three hours, telling his experiences in the house of commons and with royalty. One of his jokes I must tell, writes William H. Crawford in Collier's.

One labor member had done some excellent work in foreign lands. The king, knowing of it, sent for him to congratulate him for his service. He came to Mr. MacDonald, saying: "Ramsay, I don't like to go to visit the king. I'll tell you what I did and let you tell him," but Mr. MacDonald insisted that it would be impolite for him to refuse to visit the king. With much perturbation the labor member went to Buckingham palace.

The following day, when MacDonald saw him, he was all smiles. "How did you come out, Sandy?"

"Fine. The king was unco nice."

"Tell me all about it."

"Well, it was like this. I was scared; my teeth were shakin' when his majesty came in. He noticed my nervousness and said: 'You don't come to the palace often,' at which I admitted it was no' to my likin' to come at all. He looked at me, smiled, and said, 'Here, sit down here in the corner. Have a smoke, make yourself at home. You swear, don't you? Well, swear awa'! And in five minutes we were swearin' awa' together like our brithers."

AMUSEMENTS

Strong Cast for Talmadge Film

The cast of "The Dangerous Maid," a First National picture, is the greatest ever selected to support Constance Talmadge. It will be shown at the New Park on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Besides Constance Talmadge, there are Conway Tearle, her leading man; Morgan Wallace, Tully Marshall, Marjorie Daw, Charles Gerrard, Lou Morrison, Otto Matieson, Wilson Hummel, Kenneth Gibson, Ann May, Kate Price, Thomas Ricketts, Phillip Dunham, Jack Dillon and Ray Hallor. It is a Joseph M. Schenck production.

The story of "The Dangerous Maid" is laid in the turbulent times when the Duke of Monmouth rebelled against King James II of England. Constance Talmadge has the role of a madcap little rebel who dons a cavalier's sword and costume and engages in a thrilling series of adventures with the officers of the king.

Advice to Girls

By Pola Negri

My advice to any girl who contemplates engaging in motion picture work, is to ask yourself this question: "Am I prepared for hard work?"

You must also ask, "Am I ready to spend my leisure time in study? Am I willing to bring all my faculties to the task of understanding the terse directions, which a busy director will give me, when he is directing a scene? Am I content to work long hours without recognition in the hope some day my reward will come?" When you ask yourself this question and answer "Yes," be sure that you mean what you say. If you don't the actual test of WORK will discover the self deception you have practiced.

When you are given a role to play—however small—try to realize just what sort of a person your character

would be in real life. Try to get "inside" your character, as the saying is. Decide for yourself what that person's ideas would be and what the outlook upon life would be in her station. Think about your character all the time. Visualize her in relation to the whole story of which she is a part.

Remember, if you would succeed on the screen, you must face the most critical judges in the world. "The Spanish Dancer" has its last showings at the Lyceum tonight and Tuesday.

Ben Alexander Cast in Perfect Role

Ben Alexander, one hundred percent American boy, who recently became numbered among First National screen stars, precipitated by his acknowledged triumph as "Penrod" in "Penrod and Sam," surpasses all previous honors won, in the J. K. McDonald production, "Boy of Mine," another Booth Tarkington story.

Ben Alexander has climbed steadily toward stardom since his first important recognition in "Hearts of the World," and is one of the few professional children, who, as they grow older, holds fast to charm identified with extreme youth.

In "Boy of Mine," Ben carries an important role, in company with Henry B. Walthall, Irene Rich and Rockliffe Fellowes. At the New Park last time tonight. Reduced prices for kids.
